

Lansburgh &amp; Bro

Fiber
Ramie,
18c.

This is a new inter-lining. It contains sufficient Ramie Fiber to give it a toughness, flexibility and strength possessed by no other fiber inter-lining now in use.

A NAPKIN DAY.

Just a part of our Linen Counter set apart for a special sale of napkins at a special price for to-day. If you are a little short of napkins probably to-day is your opportunity.

Napkins are always counted among the necessities. Some excellent values in dinner napkins.

100 dozen 10-in heavy quality Scotch Damask Napkins	$1.00
100 dozen 10-in extra fine quality Irish Damask Napkins	$1.25
100 dozen 10-in extra heavy quality German Damask Napkins	$1.25
75 dozen 20-in extra fine quality Irish Damask Napkins	$1.60
50 dozen 20-in extra heavy quality Silver Bleached German Damask Napkins	$1.60
100 dozen 24-in good heavy quality German Damask Napkins	$1.75
50 dozen 22-in fine quality Irish Damask Napkins	$2.00
50 dozen 20-in extra fine quality Irish Satin Damask Napkins	$2.00
100 dozen 24-in fine quality Satin Damask Napkins	$3.00
25 dozen fine quality Hemmed Tray Cloths	25c

Some short lengths in Table Linens at reduced prices—probably just the quantity you need.

November Fashion Sheets here—no charge.

Lansburgh & Bro.
420, 422, 424, 426 7th St.

We're
Business Men

We know that a business founded on fraud—fostered by falsehood—harmful to the best interests of the people—could not succeed. If we made a single statement about butterine that was not absolutely true, we would lose by it as sure as fate. Butterine is better than butter. Is purer and more wholesome. It costs less than butter. We're positive about it. We're in earnest about it. We've got right and reason on our side. The only thing we have against it is butter-makers and prejudice.

Clover Creamery, 25 cts. per lb.
Albany Creamery, 20 cts. per lb.
Square flange and Glass Stands in Centre Market.

Williams & Company
Manufacturers
Wholesale Distributing Agents.

COMFORTABLE AND BEAUTIFUL.

Lafayette Square Opera House Interior

The Lafayette Square Opera House is finished. All draperies are hung. All doors set, carpets down, and the house heated in every part. When the perfect Adah Rehan as Corbin will step on the stage to-night she will see a beautiful theater before her, luxurious and complete in every detail. It seems that the opening of this house was reserved for Miss Rehan's engagement and Augustin Daly's company, which, by the way, contain all the old favorites, Mrs. G. H. Gilbert, Mr. James Lewis, George Clarke, Miss Maxine Elliott, Percy Hawfield, and others.

The engagement will be one of exceptional brilliancy; the repertoire one of unusual strength. Miss Rehan will appear as follows: Monday evening, "Railroad Love"; Tuesday evening, "School for Scandal"; Wednesday evening, "Twelfth Night"; Thursday evening, "As You Like It"; Friday evening and Saturday matinee, "Midsummer Night's Dream"; and Saturday evening, "Taming the Shrew."

Park Sisters at Calvary. The famous Park sisters, instrumentalists of New York, will give a concert Wednesday evening at Calvary Baptist Sunday-school house, Eighth and H streets northwest, under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society of that church. These ladies are well known all over the country as high-class musical artists, performing on a variety of instruments, including cornet, trombone, mandolin and zither, and will no doubt be greeted here by a large audience. They will be assisted by Mrs. Nellie Wilson Shirk, soprano, and Miss Zoe Brockhoff, contralto.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dunn have determined to spend the winter in Denver, where Mr. Dunn will open a law office. Washington will be the loser and Denver the gainer by the transfer of this agreeable young couple to the West.

Mr. Legare drives the smartest traps in town, and in just now he and Mrs. Legare are in constant evidence on the streets, in a light rig and pair of roadsters which is the envy of all their friends.

Baron Thelmin, the Portuguese minister, has taken a house on Connecticut avenue, near K street.

Miss Seckendorff is spending the present week in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Denny are still at Chevy Chase, and will remain there during the winter. Capt. Denny has sold his pretty house to his brother-in-law, Lieut. Leidy, but is already planning to build on the same lot, which occupies one of the pleasant sites in Chevy Chase.

Mr. S. Prentiss Knutt, who for a number of years has been a familiar figure in

LADY BERESFORD'S CRESTS

Sent Them to Miss Vanderbilt to Mark Blenheim's Linen.

It Takes Twelve Books to Hold the Designs for the House of Marlborough's Trappings.

When Lady Beresford, now Lady Beresford, first took possession of Blenheim, she found its linen raiment stamped and she longed for some distinctive and pretty thing that should be correct and yet very artistic to serve as a private line stamp for the house.

An eminent English artist designed a crest for her, embodying the monogram, and she was so pleased with it that she ordered another design for her dresses and another for glasses and silver. A fourth was for designs upon colored window where small panels could be set in to advantage, and still another was for marking the livery and harness and all wagons of the Blenheim estate.

Before the work was completed there were twelve complete books of patterns and designs, and so fond was she of these that she kept them when she left Blenheim. But now she has sent them to her stepdaughter that is to be, and when that young lady follows out the bridal custom of taking her own linen from her father's house she will have the little book to guide her in its marking.

The Viscountess de Silbourn, who has spent the summer with her son in Europe, arrived on the Farnham last Friday and is expected in Washington early this week.

Mrs. Magruder is another European pilgrim who is back in town after a summer

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Byrnes celebrated their silver wedding on Saturday evening at their pretty home on North Capitol street. They were assisted in receiving their large number of friends by Miss Nellie T. Frutiger and Miss Jennie Fogarty.

The evening was pleasantly varied by music, dancing and refreshments, and a number of congratulatory telegrams were received. Among the guests were Mr. Sabetta, of the Catholic University, and Fathers Gillespie and Dolan, of St. Aloysius Church.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Brown and their daughters, Miss Marie and Miss Elizabeth Brown, have returned from their summer outing and established themselves in their home, 1702 Oregon street.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wyle, who were married during the summer, have returned from abroad, and are the guests of Mr.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hopkins have returned from New York and are located at No. 1844 Eighteenth street.

Miss Ethel Renick, of Circleville, Ohio, is the guest of Miss E. V. Moler, of No. 1353 Princeton street.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Naylor, Jr., have returned from a brief visit to New York.

Mrs. T. F. Tobey, of No. 1219 Twelfth street northwest, has as her guest Mrs. Wingard, wife of the late Col. C. W. Wingard, U. S. A.

Miss Belle F. Leeds is home from a pleasant trip to Pennsylvania.

Miss Beatrice Hotell has returned from abroad.

Miss Adella E. Mathewson is home from her summer sojourn in Boston, New York and Philadelphia.

Mr. R. B. Merchant, of the Postoffice Department, has returned from a visit to Virginia.

A. M. Orison was tendered a surprise masquerade party at the Whiteley, 922 I street, on Friday night, which proved a delightful affair. Among the masqueraders were Miss Smith, Indiana square; Mrs. Gilmore, child of the regiment; Mr. J. F. Whitmore, summer gift; R. M. Douglas, negro sport; E. Trail, D. Nachman, Mr. Ellison, and Mr. E. J. Natts, hayseed; Miss M. Nellis, apple woman; M. J. Harris, Dutchman; Charles Swan, Yum Yum; Miss Inez Orison, Topsy; and E. T. Clarke, clown. Those who enjoyed the evening unmasked were Miss Winslow, Miss Trumbull, Miss C. Thompson, Mrs. Nelson, Mr. Tantum, Prof. Lovey, Mrs. Butler, W. Swan, Mr. Pittman, E. Trail, D. Nachman, Mr. Ellison, and Mr. and Mrs. Pyle.

The Hard Times Club held a meeting on Saturday night at the home of Miss Edith May White, near University Heights. A change of name for the organization was under discussion, but when a vote was taken it was found that every member, with but one exception, favored the title as it stands. It was decided to give a sociable in the near future at the residence of Miss White, when the rules of last season will be strictly observed—

Washington, will be missing from his old haunts this winter. Mr. Knutt has been the largest manufacturing company in the United States, and is at present in St. Petersburg.

For the first time in a number of years the center of social life during the winter of this year will be at the residence of Mr. Knutt. He has been the largest manufacturing company in the United States, and is at present in St. Petersburg.

It is a noticeable fact that all the bicyclers who are back in town have smart new costumes. Some of them have come straight from England, while others were made in New York, and only an expert can tell the difference between the home-made and imported garments.

Miss Kate M. Rice, of South Washington, gave a birthday party on Friday evening, which was attended by many relatives and friends, among whom were Mrs. Kate Bennett and her daughter, Miss Alice Bennett, of Baltimore, aunt and cousin of the hostess; Miss Nellie and Gladys Rice, of Frostburg; Miss Katherine Rice, of Baltimore; Miss Bertha Still, Miss Kate G. Donnelly, Miss Gertrude Pepper, Miss Stella Bailey, Miss Maude B. Cooper, Mrs. Treble Standford, and Messrs. Augustus Barnes, Frank R. Pepper, William F. Donnelly, Alfred F. Johnson, Bert Baker and others.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Byrnes celebrated their silver wedding on Saturday evening at their pretty home on North Capitol street. They were assisted in receiving their large number of friends by Miss Nellie T. Frutiger and Miss Jennie Fogarty.

The evening was pleasantly varied by music, dancing and refreshments, and a number of congratulatory telegrams were received. Among the guests were Mr. Sabetta, of the Catholic University, and Fathers Gillespie and Dolan, of St. Aloysius Church.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Brown and their daughters, Miss Marie and Miss Elizabeth Brown, have returned from their summer outing and established themselves in their home, 1702 Oregon street.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wyle, who were married during the summer, have returned from abroad, and are the guests of Mr.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hopkins have returned from New York and are located at No. 1844 Eighteenth street.

Miss Ethel Renick, of Circleville, Ohio, is the guest of Miss E. V. Moler, of No. 1353 Princeton street.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Naylor, Jr., have returned from a brief visit to New York.

Mrs. T. F. Tobey, of No. 1219 Twelfth street northwest, has as her guest Mrs. Wingard, wife of the late Col. C. W. Wingard, U. S. A.

Miss Belle F. Leeds is home from a pleasant trip to Pennsylvania.

Miss Beatrice Hotell has returned from abroad.

Miss Adella E. Mathewson is home from her summer sojourn in Boston, New York and Philadelphia.

Mr. R. B. Merchant, of the Postoffice Department, has returned from a visit to Virginia.

A. M. Orison was tendered a surprise masquerade party at the Whiteley, 922 I street, on Friday night, which proved a delightful affair. Among the masqueraders were Miss Smith, Indiana square; Mrs. Gilmore, child of the regiment; Mr. J. F. Whitmore, summer gift; R. M. Douglas, negro sport; E. Trail, D. Nachman, Mr. Ellison, and Mr. E. J. Natts, hayseed; Miss M. Nellis, apple woman; M. J. Harris, Dutchman; Charles Swan, Yum Yum; Miss Inez Orison, Topsy; and E. T. Clarke, clown. Those who enjoyed the evening unmasked were Miss Winslow, Miss Trumbull, Miss C. Thompson, Mrs. Nelson, Mr. Tantum, Prof. Lovey, Mrs. Butler, W. Swan, Mr. Pittman, E. Trail, D. Nachman, Mr. Ellison, and Mr. and Mrs. Pyle.

The Hard Times Club held a meeting on Saturday night at the home of Miss Edith May White, near University Heights. A change of name for the organization was under discussion, but when a vote was taken it was found that every member, with but one exception, favored the title as it stands. It was decided to give a sociable in the near future at the residence of Miss White, when the rules of last season will be strictly observed—

Washington, will be missing from his old haunts this winter. Mr. Knutt has been the largest manufacturing company in the United States, and is at present in St. Petersburg.

For the first time in a number of years the center of social life during the winter of this year will be at the residence of Mr. Knutt. He has been the largest manufacturing company in the United States, and is at present in St. Petersburg.

It is a noticeable fact that all the bicyclers who are back in town have smart new costumes. Some of them have come straight from England, while others were made in New York, and only an expert can tell the difference between the home-made and imported garments.

Miss Kate M. Rice, of South Washington, gave a birthday party on Friday evening, which was attended by many relatives and friends, among whom were Mrs. Kate Bennett and her daughter, Miss Alice Bennett, of Baltimore, aunt and cousin of the hostess; Miss Nellie and Gladys Rice, of Frostburg; Miss Katherine Rice, of Baltimore; Miss Bertha Still, Miss Kate G. Donnelly, Miss Gertrude Pepper, Miss Stella Bailey, Miss Maude B. Cooper, Mrs. Treble Standford, and Messrs. Augustus Barnes, Frank R. Pepper, William F. Donnelly, Alfred F. Johnson, Bert Baker and others.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Byrnes celebrated their silver wedding on Saturday evening at their pretty home on North Capitol street. They were assisted in receiving their large number of friends by Miss Nellie T. Frutiger and Miss Jennie Fogarty.

The evening was pleasantly varied by music, dancing and refreshments, and a number of congratulatory telegrams were received. Among the guests were Mr. Sabetta, of the Catholic University, and Fathers Gillespie and Dolan, of St. Aloysius Church.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Brown and their daughters, Miss Marie and Miss Elizabeth Brown, have returned from their summer outing and established themselves in their home, 1702 Oregon street.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wyle, who were married during the summer, have returned from abroad, and are the guests of Mr.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hopkins have returned from New York and are located at No. 1844 Eighteenth street.

Miss Ethel Renick, of Circleville, Ohio, is the guest of Miss E. V. Moler, of No. 1353 Princeton street.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Naylor, Jr., have returned from a brief visit to New York.

Mrs. T. F. Tobey, of No. 1219 Twelfth street northwest, has as her guest Mrs. Wingard, wife of the late Col. C. W. Wingard, U. S. A.

Miss Belle F. Leeds is home from a pleasant trip to Pennsylvania.

Miss Beatrice Hotell has returned from abroad.

Miss Adella E. Mathewson is home from her summer sojourn in Boston, New York and Philadelphia.

Mr. R. B. Merchant, of the Postoffice Department, has returned from a visit to Virginia.

A. M. Orison was tendered a surprise masquerade party at the Whiteley, 922 I street, on Friday night, which proved a delightful affair. Among the masqueraders were Miss Smith, Indiana square; Mrs. Gilmore, child of the regiment; Mr. J. F. Whitmore, summer gift; R. M. Douglas, negro sport; E. Trail, D. Nachman, Mr. Ellison, and Mr. E. J. Natts, hayseed; Miss M. Nellis, apple woman; M. J. Harris, Dutchman; Charles Swan, Yum Yum; Miss Inez Orison, Topsy; and E. T. Clarke, clown. Those who enjoyed the evening unmasked were Miss Winslow, Miss Trumbull, Miss C. Thompson, Mrs. Nelson, Mr. Tantum, Prof. Lovey, Mrs. Butler, W. Swan, Mr. Pittman, E. Trail, D. Nachman, Mr. Ellison, and Mr. and Mrs. Pyle.

The Hard Times Club held a meeting on Saturday night at the home of Miss Edith May White, near University Heights. A change of name for the organization was under discussion, but when a vote was taken it was found that every member, with but one exception, favored the title as it stands. It was decided to give a sociable in the near future at the residence of Miss White, when the rules of last season will be strictly observed—

Washington, will be missing from his old haunts this winter. Mr. Knutt has been the largest manufacturing company in the United States, and is at present in St. Petersburg.

For the first time in a number of years the center of social life during the winter of this year will be at the residence of Mr. Knutt. He has been the largest manufacturing company in the United States, and is at present in St. Petersburg.

It is a noticeable fact that all the bicyclers who are back in town have smart new costumes. Some of them have come straight from England, while others were made in New York, and only an expert can tell the difference between the home-made and imported garments.

Miss Kate M. Rice, of South Washington, gave a birthday party on Friday evening, which was attended by many relatives and friends, among whom were Mrs. Kate Bennett and her daughter, Miss Alice Bennett, of Baltimore, aunt and cousin of the hostess; Miss Nellie and Gladys Rice, of Frostburg; Miss Katherine Rice, of Baltimore; Miss Bertha Still, Miss Kate G. Donnelly, Miss Gertrude Pepper, Miss Stella Bailey, Miss Maude B. Cooper, Mrs. Treble Standford, and Messrs. Augustus Barnes, Frank R. Pepper, William F. Donnelly, Alfred F. Johnson, Bert Baker and others.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Byrnes celebrated their silver wedding on Saturday evening at their pretty home on North Capitol street. They were assisted in receiving their large number of friends by Miss Nellie T. Frutiger and Miss Jennie Fogarty.

The evening was pleasantly varied by music, dancing and refreshments, and a number of congratulatory telegrams were received. Among the guests were Mr. Sabetta, of the Catholic University, and Fathers Gillespie and Dolan, of St. Aloysius Church.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Brown and their daughters, Miss Marie and Miss Elizabeth Brown, have returned from their summer outing and established themselves in their home, 1702 Oregon street.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wyle, who were married during the summer, have returned from abroad, and are the guests of Mr.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hopkins have returned from New York and are located at No. 1844 Eighteenth street.

Miss Ethel Renick, of Circleville, Ohio, is the guest of Miss E. V. Moler, of No. 1353 Princeton street.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Naylor, Jr., have returned from a brief visit to New York.

Mrs. T. F. Tobey, of No. 1219 Twelfth street northwest, has as her guest Mrs. Wingard, wife of the late Col. C. W. Wingard, U. S. A.

Miss Belle F. Leeds is home from a pleasant trip to Pennsylvania.

Miss Beatrice Hotell has returned from abroad.

Miss Adella E. Mathewson is home from her summer sojourn in Boston, New York and Philadelphia.

Mr. R. B. Merchant, of the Postoffice Department, has returned from a visit to Virginia.

A. M. Orison was tendered a surprise masquerade party at the Whiteley, 922 I street, on Friday night, which proved a delightful affair. Among the masqueraders were Miss Smith, Indiana square; Mrs. Gilmore, child of the regiment; Mr. J. F. Whitmore, summer gift; R. M. Douglas, negro sport; E. Trail, D. Nachman, Mr. Ellison, and Mr. E. J. Natts, hayseed; Miss M. Nellis, apple woman; M. J. Harris, Dutchman; Charles Swan, Yum Yum; Miss Inez Orison, Topsy; and E. T. Clarke, clown. Those who enjoyed the evening unmasked were Miss Winslow, Miss Trumbull, Miss C. Thompson, Mrs. Nelson, Mr. Tantum, Prof. Lovey, Mrs. Butler, W. Swan, Mr. Pittman, E. Trail, D. Nachman, Mr. Ellison, and Mr. and Mrs. Pyle.

The Hard Times Club held a meeting on Saturday night at the home of Miss Edith May White, near University Heights. A change of name for the organization was under discussion, but when a vote was taken it was found that every member, with but one exception, favored the title as it stands. It was decided to give a sociable in the near future at the residence of Miss White, when the rules of last season will be strictly observed—

Washington, will be missing from his old haunts this winter. Mr. Knutt has been the largest manufacturing company in the United States, and is at present in St. Petersburg.

For the first time in a number of years the center of social life during the winter of this year will be at the residence of Mr. Knutt. He has been the largest manufacturing company in the United States, and is at present in St. Petersburg.

It is a noticeable fact that all the bicyclers who are back in town have smart new costumes. Some of them have come straight from England, while others were made in New York, and only an expert can tell the difference between the home-made and imported garments.

Miss Kate M. Rice, of South Washington, gave a birthday party on Friday evening, which was attended by many relatives and friends, among whom were Mrs. Kate Bennett and her daughter, Miss Alice Bennett, of Baltimore, aunt and cousin of the hostess; Miss Nellie and Gladys Rice, of Frostburg; Miss Katherine Rice, of Baltimore; Miss Bertha Still, Miss Kate G. Donnelly, Miss Gertrude Pepper, Miss Stella Bailey, Miss Maude B. Cooper, Mrs. Treble Standford, and Messrs. Augustus Barnes, Frank R. Pepper, William F. Donnelly, Alfred F. Johnson, Bert Baker and others.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Byrnes celebrated their silver wedding on Saturday evening at their pretty home on North Capitol street. They were assisted in receiving their large number of friends by Miss Nellie T. Frutiger and Miss Jennie Fogarty.

The evening was pleasantly varied by music, dancing and refreshments, and a number of congratulatory telegrams were received. Among the guests were Mr. Sabetta, of the Catholic University, and Fathers Gillespie and Dolan, of St. Aloysius Church.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Brown and their daughters, Miss Marie and Miss Elizabeth Brown, have returned from their summer outing and established themselves in their home, 1702 Oregon street.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wyle, who were married during the summer, have returned from abroad, and are the guests of Mr.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hopkins have returned from New York and are located at No. 1844 Eighteenth street.

Miss Ethel Renick, of Circleville, Ohio, is the guest of Miss E. V. Moler, of No. 1353 Princeton street.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Naylor, Jr., have returned from a brief visit to New York.

Mrs. T. F. Tobey, of No. 1219 Twelfth street northwest, has as her guest Mrs. Wingard, wife of the late Col. C. W. Wingard, U. S. A.

Miss Belle F. Leeds is home from a pleasant trip to Pennsylvania.

Miss Beatrice Hotell has returned from abroad.

Miss Adella E. Mathewson is home from her summer sojourn in Boston, New York and Philadelphia.

Mr. R. B. Merchant, of the Postoffice Department, has returned from a visit to Virginia.

A. M. Orison was tendered a surprise masquerade party at the Whiteley, 922 I street, on Friday night, which proved a delightful affair. Among the masqueraders were Miss Smith, Indiana square; Mrs. Gilmore, child of the regiment; Mr. J. F. Whitmore, summer gift; R. M. Douglas, negro sport; E. Trail, D. Nachman, Mr. Ellison, and Mr. E. J. Natts, hayseed; Miss M. Nellis, apple woman; M. J. Harris, Dutchman; Charles Swan, Yum Yum; Miss Inez Orison, Topsy; and E. T. Clarke, clown. Those who enjoyed the evening unmasked were Miss Winslow, Miss Trumbull, Miss C. Thompson, Mrs. Nelson, Mr. Tantum, Prof. Lovey, Mrs. Butler, W. Swan, Mr. Pittman, E. Trail, D. Nachman, Mr. Ellison, and Mr. and Mrs. Pyle.

The Hard Times Club held a meeting on Saturday night at the home of Miss Edith May White, near University Heights. A change of name for the organization was under discussion, but when a vote was taken it was found that every member, with but one exception, favored the title as it stands. It was decided to give a sociable in the near future at the residence of Miss White, when the rules of last season will be strictly observed—

Washington, will be missing from his old haunts this winter. Mr. Knutt has been the largest manufacturing company in the United States, and is at present in St. Petersburg.

For the first time in a number of years the center of social life during the winter of this year will be at the residence of Mr. Knutt. He has been the largest manufacturing company in the United States, and is at present in St. Petersburg.

It is a noticeable fact that all the bicyclers who are back in town have smart new costumes. Some of them have come straight from England, while others were made in New York, and only an expert can tell the difference between the home-made and imported garments.

Miss Kate M. Rice, of South Washington, gave a birthday party on Friday evening, which was attended by many relatives and friends, among whom were Mrs. Kate Bennett and her daughter, Miss Alice Bennett, of Baltimore, aunt and cousin of the hostess; Miss Nellie and Gladys Rice, of Frostburg; Miss Katherine Rice, of Baltimore; Miss Bertha Still, Miss Kate G. Donnelly, Miss Gertrude Pepper, Miss Stella Bailey, Miss Maude B. Cooper, Mrs. Treble Standford, and Messrs. Augustus Barnes, Frank R. Pepper, William F. Donnelly, Alfred F. Johnson, Bert Baker and others.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Byrnes celebrated their silver wedding on Saturday evening at their pretty home on North Capitol street. They were assisted in receiving their large number of friends by Miss Nellie T. Frutiger and Miss Jennie Fogarty.

The evening was pleasantly varied by music, dancing and refreshments, and a number of congratulatory telegrams were received. Among the guests were Mr. Sabetta, of the Catholic University, and Fathers Gillespie and Dolan, of St. Aloysius Church.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Brown and their daughters, Miss Marie and Miss Elizabeth Brown, have returned from their summer outing and established themselves in their home, 1702 Oregon street.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wyle, who were married during the summer, have returned from abroad, and are the guests of Mr.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hopkins have returned from New York and are located at No. 1844 Eighteenth street.

Miss Ethel Renick, of Circleville, Ohio, is the guest of Miss E. V. Moler, of No. 1353 Princeton street.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Naylor, Jr., have returned from a brief visit to New York.

Mrs. T. F. Tobey, of No. 1219 Twelfth street northwest, has as her guest Mrs. Wingard, wife of the late Col. C. W. Wingard, U. S. A.

Miss Belle F. Leeds is home from a pleasant trip to Pennsylvania.

Miss Beatrice Hotell has returned from abroad.

Miss Adella E. Mathewson is home from her summer sojourn in Boston, New York and Philadelphia.

Mr. R. B. Merchant, of the Postoffice Department, has returned from a visit to Virginia.

A. M. Orison was tendered a surprise masquerade party at the Whiteley, 922 I street, on Friday night, which proved a delightful affair. Among the masqueraders were Miss Smith, Indiana square; Mrs. Gilmore, child of the regiment; Mr. J. F. Whitmore, summer gift; R. M. Douglas, negro sport; E. Trail, D. Nachman, Mr. Ellison, and Mr. E. J. Natts, hayseed; Miss M. Nellis, apple woman; M. J. Harris, Dutchman; Charles Swan, Yum Yum; Miss Inez Orison, Topsy; and E. T. Clarke, clown. Those who enjoyed the evening unmasked were Miss Winslow, Miss Trumbull, Miss C. Thompson, Mrs. Nelson, Mr. Tantum, Prof. Lovey, Mrs. Butler, W. Swan, Mr. Pittman, E. Trail, D. Nachman, Mr. Ellison, and Mr. and Mrs. Pyle.

The Hard Times Club held a meeting on Saturday night at the home of Miss Edith May White, near University Heights. A change of name for the organization was under discussion, but when a vote was taken it was found that every member, with but one exception, favored the title as it stands. It was decided to give a sociable in the near future at the residence of Miss White, when the rules of last season will be strictly observed—